

Register for a Free Tax Filing Clinic with the Oak Park Neighbourhood Centre!

We provide free, year-round tax filing for eligible Halton residents. We are currently filing returns virtually or by pre-arranged drop-off. All you need to do is complete and email or drop off the form below!

Who can use this service?

✓ Halton residents who have a combined household income at or below the following amounts:

1 person	$35,000 or less
2 persons	$45,000 or less
3 persons	$47,500 or less
4 persons	$50,000 or less
More than 4 people	$50,000 plus $2,500 for each additional person

✗ We CANNOT file for residents who are self-employed (i.e., Uber or InstaCart) or have employment expenses, unless your income in Box 48 of the T4A is less than $1000 and no expenses are claimed.

What if I'm married or have a common law partner?

If you both want to use our tax clinic, each partner must fill out a registration form. If your partner does not use our tax clinic, please provide us with their Name, Date of Birth, SIN# and net income for 2021 as it will be required for your tax return.

Not sure if you're common law? It is defined as a couple with a child who has lived together for a year or more or a couple without a child who has lived together for 3 or more years.

How to register for a clinic:
